CHICKEN FAT FOR CAKE.—The fat of chickens is said by cakemaker of great experience to be superior to the finest butter for making the most delicate cake If the fat of boiled chicken is to be used, cook them without salt, and there will not be the slightest flavor of fowl.

Butter should always be churned several degrees colder in summer than in winter. The reason is that the caseinous matter of milk more readily attaches itself to the butter globules in summer than in winter, and that this adhesion can best be prevented by a cooler temperature of the cream when churning is Excessive acidity in cream before churning causes a partial separation of the butter fats, and the acid also develops glycerine from one of the oils composing these fats. Souring cream does not add to the quality of butter; it daughter became 14 years old she simply creates a stronger flavor, in contrast to the delicate flavor of unsoured cream, which is the true flavor of aroma.

Mr. W. W. ORANGE SALAD.—This is a delicious salad and easily made. Peel two or three sweet, juicy oranges and cut up the quarters in nice mouthfuls, removing all seeds. Serve with half a dozen bits of orange in a nest of three or four leaves of lettuce, and pour Mayonnaise sauce over each nest. A similar sauce of apples can be made when the apples are very ripe, juicy and sour.

Natural vegetable acids do not harm milk but the artificial acid of fermenting food introduces an element into the consumption that it is not possible for nature to neutralize, and hence affects the milk. The amount of ferment may be small and do little injury, but if carried beyond a certain point will have a deleterious effect, which experiment, time and again, has demonstrated.

SALAD DRESSING .- Beat one raw egg in an earthen cake dish until it is smooth then add olive oil, a very little at a time, carefully stirring it into the egg with the right hand as you drop it in with the left. When the egg and oil make a thick mixture pour a little vinegar over it, then stir in more oil, and so on in this way until you have the desired quantity of dressing; season with lemon juice, pepper, mustard, pickles or onions chipped very fine, or with celery, water cress, parsley, capars, olives, or with any flavor you choose. Hard boiled eggs may be added also.

A Spring Sour .- Wash, drain and chop fine a quart of sorrel (rejecting any thick stalks), a dozen sprigs of chervil and a small head of lettuce. Put two ounces of butter into a stew-pan and set it on a good fire. When melted add the sorrel, chervil and lettuce, and stir until cooked; then add two quarts of broth and sim-mer gently for half an hour. Beat up the yolks of three eggs with one table-spoonful of water, and mix with the sup just as it is taken from the fire. Have some croutons in the soup tureen; pour the soup on them and serve.

MARRIED HIS OWN DAUGHTER.

The Unnatural Marriage Was the Result of a Wife's Misdoings.

A few miles from Schenectady, in Schoharie county, resides a married couple, the husband being considerably older than his wife. They had lived happily together for more than two years, and have had one child a little girl. Eighteen years ago a youth of 17, the son of a wealthy farmer, living near the boundary line of Schoharie county, e a runaway marriage with 15-year-old daughter of a neighbor. They settled in Esperance, Iowa, where they resided for several years. A daughter was born to them in the first year of their marriage. While the child was an infant the mother eloped with a "drummer," taking the child with her, and went, the husband knew not where, but as recent developments show, to Chicago, where she has since resided. When the ran away. She met a man who paid much attention to her. The acquaintance ripened into love, and when the girl arrived at the age of 17 they were marsettled, and have since lived happily. In some way the girl's mother learned has been a laborious and costly work, but the end justifies the effort. Obstruction in any important channel means disaster. Obstructions in the organs of the human body bring inevitable disease. They must be cleared away or physical wreck will follow. Keep the liver in order and the pure blood courses through the body, conveying health, strength and life; let it become disordered and the channels are clogged with impurities, which result in disease and death. No other medicine equals Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" for acting upon the liver and purifying the blood
